Foundation Acupuncture Training

This course is accredited by the University of Hertfordshire.

Who should attend this course?
This course is for physiotherapists, osteopaths, nurses, podiatrists and other HPC regulated health care professionals who want to develop skills and knowledge in acupuncture that they can integrate into practice with a view to providing effective pain management.

Course content
This course offers students extensive clinical reasoning in the areas of pain, tissue healing and management of acute and chronic conditions. Topics include:

- Clinical Reasoning in Health Care Practice.
- Integration of manual therapy and acupuncture in clinical practice.
- Critical Analysis of current research to support acupuncture in Health Care Practice.

Where is the course taught and by whom?
Teaching sessions take place at Pure Sports Medicine, Cabot Place West, Canary Wharf, London, E14 4QT

The short course is taught by Jennie Longbottom Msc MMed BSc FCSP BMAS

Cost
£500 (includes manuals, and refreshments)

When does this course run?
- 20-21 September 2014
- 27-28 September 2014
- 8 November 2014

Booking enquiries
Maria Paone
Tel 0203 595 1234 quote “acupuncture course” reception.canary@puresportsmed.com