

'Bridging the Gap' between Theory and Practice

AGILE Learning Event 2018

Hold the date!

The 2018 AGILE Learning Event is planned for

10-11th November 2018

Venue: Glasgow Caledonian University

There will be a variety of speakers presenting on the theory and research background to physiotherapy practice with older adults and the practicalities of how to implement best practice in your clinical area.

Further information and a call for abstracts will be notified to AGILE members in the Spring.

In the meantime – put the date in your diaries and plan to visit Scotland this November!
