

CSP Charitable Trust Research Awards 2014 – Successful Applicants

Scientific Panel Round: 13&14 November 2014

Principal Investigator	Project Title	Amount Awarded
Anne Forster	Skilful Care Training Package for residents in care homes: cluster randomised controlled feasibility trial.	£300,341
Doreen McClurg	Identifying key messages for physiotherapists treating female urinary incontinence: a Cochrane Overview of the evidence	£51,304
Terry Gorst	The development of somatosensory discrimination tests in the lower limb following stroke	£20,514
Linda Davies	What is the optimal exercise package in physiotherapy management for early hip Osteoarthritis? An exploratory study to develop an intervention.	£20,419
Lee Cameron	Management of Chronic Post-Partum Pelvic Girdle Pain: Evaluating Effectiveness of Combined Physiotherapy and a Dynamic Elastomeric Fabric Orthoses	£19,829
Carol Keen	An investigation of the current physiotherapy provision in the United Kingdom (UK) for patients with pulmonary hypertension (PH)	£20,388
Claire Marcroft	Motor assessment of preterm infants: A comparison between the Lacey Assessment of Preterm Infants and Prechtl's General Movements Assessment.	£20,531
Jennifer Ryan	An evaluation of the feasibility, acceptability and efficacy of resistance training in adolescents with cerebral palsy.	£250,447