Responding to a changing population: the need to develop a culturally competent workforce

Pippa Steele, Jackie Shanley, Nicky Knowles, Nigel Williams, Julie Sellars, Martyn Wyres
What are the experiences of international physiotherapy students and the staff who support them, of their first clinical placements in the UK?
Themes

- Intercultural based communication issues
- Relationship between student and practice educator
- Pre-conceived beliefs of practice educators and academic staff
Intercultural based communication issues
Relationship between student and practice educator
Pre-conceived beliefs of practice educators and academic staff
Conclusions – Intercultural Constructs

Implications – the final word